

SHEN LIU

Professional Licenses, Education & Associations:

Certified Public Accountant, Washington, 2006

M.P.Acc. (Taxation), University of Washington, 2005

Economist

M.A. in Economics, Yamaguchi University (Japan), 1999
Peace and Friendship honorary
Thesis - Overseas Direct Investment to China

B.A. in Commercial Economics, Renmin University of China (Beijing, China), 1993
Academic excellence honorary
Thesis - Economic and Trading Relationship between Russia and China

Business Insolvency Specialist

Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisor candidate, current
Examinations completed 2007

Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors
Turnaround Management Association

Business Valuation Specialist

Certified Valuation Analyst, 2007
National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts

Professional Employment & Activities:

Public Accounting:

Senior accountant, Dawson & Gerbic, LLP, 2005-present

Other:

Linguistic Engineer, Ke-Zhi Information Processing, Inc., Beijing, China, 1993-1995
Led a nine-engineer team in development of a Russian-Chinese artificial intelligence translation system.

Accounting Clerk, Chang-Ying Computer Technologies, Inc., Beijing, China, 1990-1992

Personal Skills:

Native Mandarin speaker, fluent in Japanese, working knowledge of Russian